merry christmas

"but let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy.
spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may rejoice in you."
psalm 5:11

Dear friends,

Merry Christmas! In this season, we find ourselves thankful for Jesus, light of the world, who came into darkness to reveal the Father's grace and everlasting kindness. Where would any of us be without his help?

These days, we are constantly reminded of our dependence on Him. As you may know, we are moving to Cambodia on March 3rd to pursue long-term missions work with In His Steps International. Our heart for the Cambodian people is rooted in Isaiah 61: preach good news to the poor, bind up the broken-hearted, release the bound from darkness into light, strengthen others so they can rebuild what has been destroyed. Fits quite well with Christmas, doesn't it?

If you don't receive our newsletter and would like to, visit goodlinONLINE.com and fill out the simple form on the home page. We would love for you to share this journey with us. As it stands, we are at the half-way mark to our monthly commitment goal and would be grateful for your support. More information is available on our website: goodlinONLINE.com. We appreciate your prayers and look forward to hearing from you!

Christmas is also a time of reflection. Below are the highlights of this last year.

Jacob: Photography has been a growing part of Jacob's life. This year, he and Noelle, his trusty assistant, shot numerous family sessions, engagement pics and weddings. View his photo blog at goodlinONLINE.com. Jacob works at Compassion International until February. In his spare time, he can be found experimenting with his new video camera, snow-blowing the driveway and singing random songs to Noelle at the top of his lungs.

Noelle: Recently she moved out of her role with theMILL (New Life's college ministry). She loved pastoring young women so this has been a season of both sadness and anticipation. Noelle discovered Eugene Peterson (editor of The Message) who is her latest author crush and cherished a week-long friend reunion in Breckenridge. In her spare time, she can be found contemplating her next Eugene purchase, drinking tea with friends and thinking of harmonies to go with Jacob's songs.

We remain increasingly grateful for your friendship!

With joy,

Jacob and Noelle
