OUTREACH UPDATE

Neighbor to Neighbor

Please join with me in thanking Pam Ogens for her service as a Street Captain for Sonata Way. Pam recently resigned from Neighbor to Neighbor; we will miss her.

It is my pleasure to announce that Paula Pariseau has volunteered to join Christa Fookes as a Street Captain for the 200/300 blocks of Harmony Way. Paula has only lived here a few months, so we're welcoming her both to SV and to our group. If you're not sure who the Captains are for your street, you can always find that information on the SV website under Directories--Neighbor to Neighbor. Eleanor Strietman

3rd Annual Artisans' Fair a Success Story!

Over 200 attendees enjoyed the arts and crafts offerings of twenty-one vendors who participated in our Symphony Village Outreach Program's 3rd Annual Artisans' Fair held on September 22.

Funds were raised through the rental of "booth" space plus the lunches and food sold enabling S.V.O.P.I. to present a $2,000 donation to Chesapeake Victories, Inc., Church Hill, the designated beneficiary of this event.

The three raffle prizes were awarded in the drawing as follows: the spice rack went to resident Carolyn Dent, the framed print to non-resident Terry M., and the quilt to artisan (wood carver) Al Wayson.

The steering committee included Linda Gardner, Loretta Quigley, Nancie Cameron, Linda Blume, Shirley Clark, Willie DiLaura, BJ McClaeb, Janet O'Connor, Marge Strano, and Bea Trotta. Many more Villagers helped out on the day itself!! We could not have done it without all of our helpers! We are indeed a Village.

A heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone for supporting this wonderful day and please join us in looking forward to the 4th Annual event in September 2013! Below are 3 of the artisans.

Please select a “drop-off” house from the following for your food donation:

Mary and Bob Ciesielski	227 Concerto Avenue
Rosemary and Scott Page	227 Harmony Way
Betty and Lloyd McAtee	321 Overture Way
Teri and Jerry Nudo	106 Harmony Way

As in the past, we are looking for non-perishable items such as canned soup, vegetables, fruits, pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter, jelly, mayo, tuna fish, cereals, and any other food that you would like to donate. Please, no outdated items from your pantry! If possible, place your items in a box rather than a grocery sack or bag before taking to a drop-off house.

Our goal this year is 2104 units of food (or more!)... one more than last year. Please look at the grocery flyers for sales and stock up to help us make our goal. The need is great, but so is the feeling of doing this good deed! Any questions? Please contact Loretta Quigley at lorettaquigley@yahoo.com or 410-758-6775.

CLUBS AND CLASSES

SYMPHONY VILLAGE BIRD CLUB—Linda Blume

The Bird Club held a picnic on a crisp fall day in the Picnic Pavilion. Dorthea Turek, Madeline Manning, Nancie Cameron, Don Cameron, Dave Gallop, Carol Gallop, Priscilla Mileski, and Linda (Priscilla's sister), gathered to talk birds and birding and eat. (We do that so well here in SV!). Linda Blume took the picture. We also talked travel adventures, indoor parakeets and cockatiels and finches, and even got into politics a bit. There weren't many birds in sight, but two mockingbirds did put on quite a chase around the patio area – we wondered what the disagreement was!

The Bird Club will travel to Pickering Creek Audubon Center in Easton on Sunday, November 4, for a guided bird walk entitled "Fall for Birds." The walk is 2 – 4 p.m., and we'll meet in the Clubhouse parking lot at 1:15 p.m. to carpool. Please sign up in the Activities Book by Wednesday, October 31, so I can tell Pickering Creek the number to expect. The cost is $5 for non-Audubon members and free for Audubon members.

THE GAZEBO AND VICTORY GARDEN CLUB—Jack Hennessey

Bad news! Anita Dell, one of our most faithful gardeners, has had a shoulder replacement and can no longer help with the two flower beds she was handling. This places us further in the hole. Since the heat wave has passed, several gardeners have returned to help us with the weeding. In the past two weeks, we have filled ten trash bags and turned them over to the trash collector. There are about ten more bags to go. Steve Guy has sprayed Roundup on many of the obnoxious sticker bushes. Our American flags are getting pretty ragged and will be replaced. Four mums have been planted to add some fall color to the garden. Spare parts have been procured to repair the two martin houses, which were damaged in the recent windstorm. Dennis Pilgrim has purchased his own martin house, which will be installed with the advice and help of the Garden Club. The hummingbirds were last seen on September 30 at the gazebo. We look forward to their return in the spring. Incidentally, the mice are starting to look for warm places to winter. Jack has caught two already in his garage. Get your mousetraps baited! We have several crepe myrtle bushes that we will dig for any resident who would like one. Call Steve or Jack.

In the Victory Garden, we are still harvesting a few eggplants. Some of the optimistic gardeners have been planting lettuce, radishes, onions, and beets. Good Luck! All gardeners are requested to remove all stakes, fences, and ropes so that Dave Peterson will be able to till the garden before a hard frost hits. We also plan to do a cleanup around the Victory Garden, so please claim all of your garden supplies or they will be trashed.

THE READING FOR FUN BOOK CLUB—Jack Hennessey

The Reading for Fun Club met on September 18 to discuss the book The Invisible Bridge by Stephanie Deutsch. This book was selected by Lee Ettman. The story is set primarily in Hungary in the World War II era, and involves three Jewish brothers, one of whom is studying in Italy to be a doctor, during the reign of Mussolini. The second is studying in Paris to be an architect. The third is interested in the Fine Arts. All three are deported to their native Hungary, where they end up working in forced labor camps. Of course there is a romantic angle, and the story ends with the family living in America. It is a long book (600 pages), but is well worth the read! On a scale of 1 to 10, this book was rated 8.5. A delicious dessert of cookies and peach tea was enjoyed by all.

The book for our October 15 meeting is The Cellist of Sarajevo by Steven Galloway. This book was recommended by Jack Hennessey. It also happens to be the book recommended by the Maryland One Book Program to be read by all Marylanders for 2012. This program is spearheaded by The Enoch Pratt Free Library. In addition to the cellist, the story follows the lives of three others; a baker, a young father, and a female sniper. All residents are encouraged to read The Cellist. A copy of this book, along with 30 of the top rated books read by the Book Club, will be made available to residents during October. All residents are invited to join the Book Club; or to sit in on the discussions. FREE DESSERT!

SOFTBALL

On Tuesday, October 2, the Baltimore Senior Men's Softball League voted to grant a charter to our own team, The Shoremen. We are now official and have established a bank account for team purchases and have secured a home field in Stevensville. We have been practicing each Monday morning and will be concluding the practices at the end of October due to the weather. If you feel you would like to play for our team in the spring, please contact John Meyer, team manager, at 443-262-8684. In the meantime, get in shape. Softball is not for sissies.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Our dear son, Joe, passed away peacefully in his sleep at Hospice on September 9, 2012, after a several year battle with appendix cancer. He was the kindest and most gentle soul we have ever known. We take comfort in knowing how many people loved him and that his suffering is now over. We feel so blessed that God brought him into our lives and for the lessons Joe taught us all about how to live life and treat each other. We will love him always and will miss him terribly, but we know he is in a much better place. Rest in peace, sweet Joe. We would like to thank all of you in Symphony Village for your friendship, support and expressions of sympathy. We will be eternally grateful.

Norm and Jan DiCarlantonio

Thank you are two small words that mean a great deal. Everyone at Symphony Village has been so kind to us while Bernie was ill and even now that he has had the surgery. The wonderful meals and super delicious cakes and of course the many, many get well cards.

Your prayers and get well wishes helped us get through a very difficult time and for that we will always be grateful.
Fondly, Anita and Bernie

RESTAURANT REVIEW

by Karin Anne Larsen

COMMERCE STREET CREAMERY

Hospitality rules at a new neighborhood favorite, Commerce Street Creamery. Perched within historic “Centre Ville” (the French spelling was chosen because of the post-Revolutionary War admiration for the French and because in 1782 the county seat was moved from Queenstown to a more central part of the county), diners eat adjacent to the circa 1792 Courthouse, which is the oldest continuously working courthouse in the state.

Born and raised on Maryland’s Eastern Shore, the Creamery’s owners and experienced caterers, Rick and Valerie, are very serious about their service and the quality of the foods that they serve. A primary example of their commitment to quality is their use of smaller, independent food and bread purveyors from which they purchase the best ingredients for their eatery’s loyal customers. Another way they demonstrate quality is by serving freshly baked, authentic New York style bagels from the Brooklyn Bagel Company. These deliciously dense four-ounce bagels come to the Creamery in partially baked form and then get finished off in the Creamery’s oven on a daily basis. If coffee is your passion, the Creamery brews the finest blends offered by the Lacas Coffee Company. It doesn’t hurt that Valerie is an expert Barista and can serve you a Latte, Cappuccino, Frappe, or any other fancy concoction you could imagine.

If you love breakfast, try any of the Creamery’s ‘made-to-order’ breakfast sandwiches. From the ‘Barnyard Brawl’ made with sausage, bacon, egg, and cheese to the ‘Manhattan’ consisting of smoked salmon, crème cheese, capers, and red onion, on bagels or croissants, you will not be disappointed. Also, the Creamery offers a wide array of delicious, freshly baked pastries and muffins. Plus, the rumor is that a full Breakfast Menu is on the horizon, so stay tuned.

For lunch, give their Famous Roast Beef on Kaiser a try. The warm shaved roast beef dipped in a spicy Chicago Style au jus, topped with melted provolone cheese and red onions and then served with barbecue sauce and prepared horseradish, is truly delicious. Or enjoy any one of the Creamery’s yummy six-dollar daily specials served Monday through Friday. The ‘lineup’ offers a signature sandwich served with a crisp pickle spear and a bag of UTZ at a special price each day of the week. Plus, for lunch or Friday night’s dinner, you will love the Chili with Beans or the Classic Reuben. Top off your meal with a Hershey’s Ice Cream Sundae, Real Hand Dipped Milkshake or Malt, Fruit Smoothie, or an Olde Fashioned Ice Cream Float. Did you know that the Commerce Street Creamery is the founding bakery for the Original Fudge Puppie? Wait ‘til’ you find out what this is!

Rick and Valerie say, “We are proud of our establishment and are thrilled to be an integral part of downtown Centreville.” They invite you to stop by, enjoy the warmth, and enjoy bumping into SV folk, while dining amid town history.

Commerce Street Creamery, Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, Ice Cream, Coffee Shop. Hours of Operation are Monday-Thursday, 7:30 a.m.-4:30 pm; Friday, 7:30-7 p.m. and Saturday, 8 a.m.-4:30 pm. Address is 128 North Commerce Street, Centreville, Maryland 21617; 410-758-6779. Their website is www.CommerceStreetCreamery.com or check them out on Facebook.
