

What Every Pastor Should Find in a WW Missionary

I. His Character

- A. A missionary with a Passion for the Lost: Everywhere
- B. A missionary with a Vision for his field that is articulated without struggle.
- C. A missionary who is Transparent and Genuine.
- D. A missionary who is punctual.
- E. A missionary who handles gifts apart from the offering with integrity
- F. A missionary who uses the King James in all English language settings.
- G. A missionary who never criticizes an offering
- H. A missionary who knows he is a servant first.
- I. A missionary who's music is conservative.
- J. A missionary who's doctrine is fundamental.

II. His Conversation

- A. A missionary who loves people (every position and age)
- B. A missionary who preaches with passion and power.
- C. A missionary who will not begin gossip or further it.
- D. A missionary who will encourage and edify.
- E. A missionary who will leave every church excited about missions.
- F. A missionary who expects nothing and is delighted with everything.

III. His Children

- A. Are trained and disciplined BEFORE arrival.
- B. Conflicts are dealt with privately and without explosive devices.
- C. Correction of your children is for the benefit of the child; not the Pastor or people.

IV. His Companion

- A. Cheerful
- B. Connected to Reality: (Your husband is there to raise support; your family is on display.
- C. Cognizant of her children entire time (not a time to display the equal partnership thing - most Pastors don't care about that) Free your husband up to be or speak with the Pastor.
- D. Who's family is modestly dressed:
 - 1. Necklines modest

What Every Pastor Should Find in a WW Missionary

2. Hemlines cover the knee when sitting
3. Not wearing shorts
4. No sleeveless shirts
5. No pants for the wife or girls.

V. His Communication:

- A. Someone who says when he is going to arrive and does.
- B. Someone who says thank you in writing
- C. Someone who honors the supporters in their ministry with prayer and praise.