

CALENDAR LISTING

WHAT: WORLD PREMIERE PLAY BY LOCAL PLAYWRIGHT

American Theatre Project production workshops "The Zeitgeist Chronicles" in New Orleans for Off-Broadway future

Set during the "Change" election of 2008, three multigenerational storylines converge as the United States elects its first African-American president. The timely three-act production's multimedia effects transport audiences to an incalculable period of American emotional, spiritual and philosophical change. Audiences will be talking all the way to the voting booth.

WHERE: Samuel DuBois Performing Arts Center

Dillard University
2601 Gentilly Blvd.
New Orleans, LA

WHEN: September 13 – 29, 2012

Thursday – Saturday, 8:00 p.m.

Preview Performances: Tuesday, Sept. 11, and Wednesday, Sept. 12, 8:00 p.m.

WHO: Directed by: Ed Bishop

Playwright: Stephen Montagne

Starring: Martin "Bats" Bradford, Kari Cojoe, Robert Doqui, Spencer Howard, Taylor McLellan, Jennifer Schemke, Janet Shea, Ray Vrazel and an all-star ensemble.

HOW MUCH:

General Admission: $22.50.

Students, seniors and groups of 10 or more: $12.50

THEATER CONTACT:

www.zeitgeistchronicles.com for tickets or more information.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Amy B. Ferguson, 504.343.7536, amy@fergusonfreelance.com

Visit www.zeitgeistchronicles.com for preview video and full cast, creative team.

###