

RAL Colour Standard

Information from FLAG Website

Due to differences in display monitors and screen calibrations, the appearance of colours may vary from one computer to another. This table is an approximate guide only.

Ral colours are commonly used in industrial painting and OEM manufacturing. RAL CLASSIC colour 4-digit references have been an accepted format for colour definition for more than 70 years. The basic collection consists of more than 200 colours and are available in both matt and gloss.
