

Dear Friend,

In the pages that follow, we present our latest catalog of designs that we pray will be a blessing to both the Giver and Receiver. Each design is created with a purpose in mind, and we've organized our catalog based on those purposes. So many life events create situations where words are hard to come by.....we hope these porcelain keepsakes will help put words to your thoughts as you seek to be a blessing to those with whom you live and love.

Blessings,

Those special moments pass swiftly by. A photo and a card of days gone by are all that remain. Life is short. What will you remember? What are the most important moments and opportunities that are too precious to pass up?

These questions are what inspired Pure Grace to design gifts, ornaments, angels, collectibles, and greeting cards. Products that help the Giver and Receiver, you and the ones you love, express those most valuable moments in life. And express them in a way that is lasting and of high quality.

More than a card or a phone call. Our products are of original design, high inherent value of porcelain, purposeful and intentional in their message, and of heirloom quality, hand produced here in the United States at affordable price points – these are the goals for the products of Pure Grace.

In summary, Pure Grace designs help you commemorate and celebrate life's journey, joys and memories.
