

Papers – Contributors

11. 45 am

1. Chair: Hugh Atkinson

Alison Pooley	Anglia Ruskin University	Transforming Practice: Re-Linking Professional Experience and the Curriculum
Howard Lee	Hadlow College	Antifragile: Food Secure Planning in The UK
Susanne Page	The Royal Central School of Speech and Drama	Driving Sustainable Theatre within a Drama Conservatoire

2. Chair: Margaret Burr

Lara Hopkinson & Julie Gwilliam	Cardiff University, Welsh School of Architecture	Driving ESD within Professional Curricula: Built Environmental Sustainability Training and Training Development for Professionals - Wales
Tony Pickford	University of Chester	Creation Of Interactive Pods at a Local Authority Recycling Centre
Adriana Consorte-McCrea & Helen Newing	Futures Initiative, Canterbury Christ Church University	Creating spaces for interdisciplinary exchange in higher education: a case study

3. Chair: Shaminder Takhar

Anthony Johnson	University of the Arts London	Exploring Curriculum Design and Participatory Practice
Jane Grose	Plymouth University	Health And Sustainability Education in Nursing: Results of The Evaluation of an E-Training Pack
Nicola Kemp	Canterbury Christ Church University	Developing a partnership for change – The Connecting Children and Nature Network

4. Chair: Anna Portch

Sally Lampkin	University of the West of England	The Challenges of Introducing Sustainable Development In The Curriculum at a UK University
Maria Xypaki	City University London	A Practical Example of Integrating Sustainable Development into Higher Education: City University London Students' Union Green Dragons
Anna Pitt and Lorna Fox	The Dustbin Diet & lornafox.co.uk	Sharing practice from around the globe: Feedback from the Best of Both Worlds EE and ESD Conference 2014