Reflection on the Holy Spirit

On the evening of that first day of the week Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to his friends, "Peace be with you,"....when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." (from John 20)

"Shalom" or "Peace be with you," on first sight an ordinary greeting in near eastern culture then and now. Yet, coming out of Jesus' mouth after his resurrection "Shalom" is more than that. Jesus gives his friends a gift that is attached to the Shalom, the peace. This gift is the Holy Spirit. "The Holy Spirit," according to Martin Luther's Small Catechism, "is the one who has called each of us according to the Gospel, enlightened us with gifts, sanctified and kept us in the faith..."

At the day of our baptism the Holy Spirit has been promised to us. I like that. It is through the continuing presence of the Spirit that Christ is still close to us. Moreover, the Holy Spirit promises us, and the world, peace and new life. It seems almost like an oxymoron that in the midst of a world hurt by ongoing wars and crises, famines and illness Jesus promises his Shalom through the Holy Spirit. As Christians, it is our calling to be ambassadors for the fruits of the Spirit, one of them being peace. How do you experience Christ's peace in your life? Do you extend peace to others?

The Spirit does not only blow on Pentecost Sunday (May 11 this year) but every day. Perhaps the season of Pentecost can be such a time when we invite the Spirit more closely into our lives so that we can experience the Spirit's fruits and then pass them on to others. Take time to discover the "spirit-ual" in your life. Be refreshed by the life-giving, generous and reconciling Spirit of God. As you read this newsletter you will discover there are lots of "spiritual opportunities" on Sunday mornings at St. Mark's and beyond!

Blessings,
Pr. Christian

Blessed to Be a Blessing

When the Conference of Bishops worshiped at St. Mark's in March, they met to discuss issues of importance. One of their decisions was to encourage all Lutherans to tithe their economic stimulus rebate checks to ministries among people living in poverty. By sharing our rebate, we redistribute this money to people and ministries in severe financial need.

Blessed to Be a Blessing is an opportunity for families and members of St. Mark's to discuss the joy of generosity: "Where might we send a portion of this rebate so as to help our neighbor?" Here are some suggestions:

1. ELCA World Hunger Appeal
<http://www.elca.org/hunger/>
2. Lutheran Disaster Response
<http://www.ldr.org/>
3. Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services
<http://www.lirs.org/>
4. Lutheran Social Services
<http://www.lsss.org/>

However we choose to enter into this, as God's people, we remember that everything we are and have comes from God. Remembering this helps our spirits to be joyful in our giving and generous in our serving.

The Feast of Pentecost Sunday, May 11

Pentecost celebrates the conclusion of the 50 days of the Easter season. While Jesus departs from the world's physical sight on Ascension (the 40th day of Easter), his promise of the Advocate and Comforter, the Holy Spirit, is realized on Pentecost. The disciples are touched with tongues of fire and given great power of prophecy. They are no longer disciples (followers) but apostles (ones sent), and they now go into the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

On this day, we encourage parishioners to wear red in keeping with the spirit of celebration. New members will be received on this festival as well.

Social Ministry News

Good News about Poverty! You can help on June 1

"Taking the five loaves and the two fish, Jesus looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled." -- Mark 6: 41-42

With five loaves and two fish offered in faith, Jesus fed thousands. When we turn our faith into action, God uses our voices. Our actions are multiplied.

School books, farming tools, basic medicines, and clean water – these resources are helping the world's poorest people in Africa and elsewhere to break the cycle of poverty and build new lives for their families.

This is happening because people of faith have been writing letters to their representatives in Congress. They've told their elected officials that helping our neighbors – whether near or far away – is the right thing to do.

Real progress has been made in reducing hunger. Still, nearly one billion people live on less than $1 a day. In 2000, every nation of the world, including the United States, pledged to work together to achieve the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), ending extreme poverty by 2015.

Bread for the World's 2008 Offering of Letters campaign urges our nation's leaders to keep this promise. Specifically, Bread for the World is calling on Congress to provide more funding for anti-poverty assistance - an increase of at least $5 billion, which would be invested in agriculture, education and health care.

Bread for the World is also seeking better development assistance - by urging passage of the Global Poverty Act. This historic legislation would coordinate U.S. assistance so that the greatest possible benefit is most effectively reaching those in greatest need.

We at St. Mark's will have an opportunity to write letters to Congress to help create hope and opportunity for hungry people in Africa and elsewhere. We will write letters on Sunday, June 1, 2008. In the meantime, you can read more about the good work being done to end poverty at www.bread.org or www.elca.org/hunger.

We must end hunger in our time!

Knit for the Streets!

It can be cold on the streets of San Francisco! San Francisco Night Ministry serves one of the neediest "congregations" on the streets of the city. The Welcome Ministry serves people with many of the same needs on the streets during the day. St. Mark's hosts 70 homeless men for two weeks during the coldest part of the San Francisco winter.

In 2008, we at St. Mark's will "Knit for the Streets". Our goal is to make knitted scarves for the homeless and people ministered to on the streets of San Francisco. We hope to knit over 600 scarves to be shared by the Night Ministers, the Welcome Ministers, and in our homeless shelter next year.

All knitters are encouraged to participate. The patterns are varied and simple. We have lovely donated yarns and needles, or you can knit from your own yarn.

Talk to Marge Okuley or Mary Ritter (mlrpeds@aol.com). Feel free to take yarn, and then return knitted scarves. Sign the pad in the "Knitting Closet" to let us know you are knitting.

Our knitting can make a difference again!

May 11 & 18

Close Reading of Poems by 17th Century Devotional Poets Dr. Peter Weltner

Shortly after the Second World War, the violinist and humanitarian Yehudi Menuhin and the composer Benjamin Britten visited several of the German death camps. For Britten, the horror of this journey led him to compose his Holy Sonnets of John Donne. George Herbert has also been an inspiration to numerous twentieth century composers, most significantly, perhaps, Ralph Vaughan Williams. In brief, the devotional poets of the English Renaissance remain to this day important aesthetic and religious figures. In these two sessions, we will want to look at just a few of these two poets' poems:

May 11 - John Donne's Holy Sonnets (in the Clements numbering)

2, 4, 6, 9, & 10.

May 18 - George Herbert's Prayer (I), The Agony, The Templer (I), and The World.

May 25

Reflecting on Our Faith Suzanne Smith

Come and share your thoughts and comments on ideas of Faith and Reason raised in an interview with Richard Rodriguez by Bill Moyers. Where do you go to listen to God? What does prayer mean for you? Are you torn between the pronouns of I and We?

Healthy Communication with Healthy Boundaries Dr. Caroline Hollnagel

Dr. Caroline Hollnagel, a psychologist and member of St. Mark's, will lead us in exploring healthy communication with boundaries.

A wide, fully accessible trail slices through Crissy Field between Marina Green and Fort Point and is perfect for an easy walk, jog, or bike, or for strollers and wheelchairs.

Departure: 10:00 am from MLT Parking Lot

Attention: Due to the nature of this trip, all participants need to have good-moderate mobility as some walking will be involved.

San Francisco's Crissy Field abounds with spring flowers and breathtaking views of the Golden Gate.

From Gretchen Kell—

Dear St. Mark's family,

My daughter Anna and I have been members of St. Mark's for many years -- I joined in the late 1980s while I was a reporter in San Francisco for The Sacramento Bee, and Anna was baptized at St. Mark's several months after I adopted her from Russia in 1997. We know many of you well after all these years.

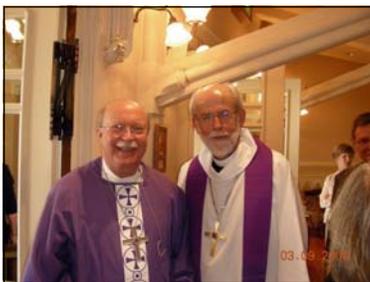

But despite our longtime membership, the time has come for us to make a change in our church home, and I feel the need to tell you about it.

The Rev. David Mullen, Bishop of the Sierra Pacific Synod and the Rev. Mark Hansen, Presiding Bishop at St. Mark's in March.

Anna and I have lived for the past 10 years in the East Bay, where I work for UC Berkeley and Anna's in 6th grade at Albany Middle School. Unlike my childhood in a tiny town in Illinois, where my parents rarely needed to drive me anywhere, my urban life with Anna is often a complicated road race between school in Albany, work in Berkeley, church in San Francisco, swim team practices in San Pablo, swim meets all over creation, doctors in Oakland, friends in Alameda, and so on.

I want to raise Anna to know the joys of active church membership, but living in the East Bay and being members of St. Mark's has made that tough. Crossing the Bay Bridge to attend Lenten and Advent services on a school night, or to hear a Sunday afternoon organ concert, or to form closer friendships with St. Mark's families living in other cities, or to work weekday mornings in the homeless shelter are examples.

With Anna about to begin confirmation class and in the "tween" years, when it's hard just to awaken her on weekend mornings, it became important to me to find an ELCA church closer to home. We found Shepherd of the Hills, a church in the Berkeley hills just outside Tilden Park and a 10-minute drive from home. We will become new members on Pentecost and already are participating there at a level we never thought possible, with our schedule, and it brings us great relief.

But that said, there is no place like St. Mark's. It is a place of uncommon ministry and sermons and music, made possible by an uncommonly gifted congregation, and it's been a gift to be with you. I also will cherish wonderful memories. Among them are the Christmas Eve pageants, Garrison Keillor's visit, the new pipe organ, our first Sunday in the renovated church building, singing and humming with Pr. Christian and others as we selected the 9 a.m. hymns, helping St. Mark's get media coverage, one-of-a-kind coffee hours, and watching my daughter acolyte and serve communion as sunlight streamed into St. Mark's gorgeous worship space.

We will miss you and think of you often and see you on a visit soon. Please feel free to write via my e-mail at gretchen\_kell@yahoo.com.

Blessings,
Gretchen Kell
