Reflection from Pastor Ekdale

Resurrection . . . new life . . . rejoicing in God's steadfast love . . . joy . . . new understandings of old words and truths . . . a fresh vision of inclusiveness – these are some of the themes we will encounter during the 50 days of Easter celebration.

In what ways do you see new life bursting forth within and around you? How might God be calling you to participate? What new understandings of old truths have occurred to you?

I am eager to ponder these questions and will be doing so while on sabbatical which begins a few days after Easter Sunday on Wednesday, April 11. It is my hope and prayer that I too will experience new life and new energy in my call to serve you as pastor with the gift of this Sabbath time.

Our sabbatical includes the following:

- ☞ Reading, retooling and studying at various local retreat centers for several weeks
- ☞ Traveling to France with Hans and Grace – visiting Paris, Provence and the Taize community – biking through the Loire Valley
- ☞ Spending time with family
- ☞ Worshipping at different congregations in the Bay Area with my family – sitting together in the pews!
- ☞ Reflecting on what it means to refocus our energies at St. Mark's from being "building-focused" to "mission-focused".

Your time will include:

- ☞ A small group book study with every parishioner receiving a book from our Sabbatical grant fund
- ☞ Reflecting on who we are as a congregation and where God is leading us
- ☞ Experiencing in new ways the gifts of our lay leaders and staff
- ☞ Receiving the leadership of Pastor Christian Jennert and Pastor Lyle Beckman. Pr. Beckman currently serves as the San Francisco Night Minister and has been a member of St. Mark's for several years. He will be providing 15 – 20 hours a week of leadership – working alongside Pr. Christian, staff and lay leaders in my absence.

Upon the conclusion of our sabbatical, we will rejoice and share with one another the new insights and understandings we will have discovered.

I will miss you while I am away – April 11 to August 1. I will hold you in my prayers and look forward to our reunion in August. I will pray for your renewal and refreshment, as I know you will be praying for my family and me.

Warmly, Pr. Elizabeth Ekdale,
Lead Pastor

THE 40 DAYS OF LENT

A preparation for Holy Baptism

Traditionally, the 40 days of Lent were reserved in the ancient church for inquirers of the Christian faith interested in baptism and so-called catechumens. The height of this Lenten journey is the reception into the community of Christ by holy baptism at the Easter Vigil service.

If you desire to be baptized into the Christian faith or know someone who is interested, please contact or Pastor Christian Jennert at Jennert@stmarks-sf.org for further information. We will gladly walk with you on this journey of baptism.

Women's Grief Support Group Reunion Meeting, April 22

All those who participated last year in the St. Mark's Women's Support Group on coping with grief, are invited to the 6-month reunion meeting we discussed. We will meet Sunday, April 22 at 12:45 pm, after coffee hour. Please notify Lynette Brohm or Jo Chadwick asap if you have a conflict.

Sacred Acts at St. Mark's

Join us in commemorating the recent sacred event in our parish:

Wednesday, 1/31
Funeral of Betty Wilshusen

Organ Dedication Recital

March 30, 2007, 8:00 pm

David Higgs, Chair of the Organ Department of the Eastman School of Music, New York, will play the organ dedication recital on the new Taylor & Boody organ in St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

You can see photos of the new organ by visiting the website for Taylor & Boody at www.taylorandboody.com and clicking Instruments and then clicking Opus 37.

The church has just finished an extensive seismic renovation and restoration. The beautiful sanctuary has been restored to its 1894 original colors, cream, gold, pale blue, natural wood, with Victorian (modern) lighting fixtures. The organ, designed to match the architecture of the church, is a "Tracker" organ in the style of older organs in Europe.

Mr. Higgs has performed throughout America, and elsewhere, and is renowned as one of the finest organists of this era. He has dedicated dozens of organs world-wide and will demonstrate our instrument to its fullest.

All are welcome. There is no charge for the concert; however, we ask that those who can make a donation will please do so.

Reservations may be made by sending a check to St. Mark's Lutheran Church, 1111 O'Farrell Street, San Francisco, CA 94109. St. Mark's requests a $20 donation for general admission, or $35 for preferred seating of organ aficionados in the balcony to observe Mr. Higgs more closely during his performance. (The organ is in the middle of the balcony at the rear of the church.) The church will keep a record of the donations, but no tickets will be issued and your returned check will be your receipt.

Please plan to attend this unique event, and tell others of the concert!

On Being a Lutheran

“On being Lutheran—Reflections on Church, Theology and Faith” by the late Timothy Lull focuses on topics such as: The Lutheran Church Confessions, the resilience of Lutheranism, rebuilding Lutheran piety, what it means to be “evangelical”, and more. With bubbling enthusiasm, intellectual joy and unceasing curiosity, this little book will make the Lutheran tradition meaningful and alive and help us grow in what it means to be a Lutheran today. Who would expect anything different from Tim Lull?

Chasing Down a Rumor

In “Chasing Down a Rumor” Robert Bacher and Ken Inskeep examine six “rumors” on the decline of mainline Protestant denominations in the U.S. Using historical trends and current statistical information, they analyze the current situation and point to vital lessons, potential problems, and key challenges. They also offer helpful strategies and provide examples of what denominations are doing that show potential. Moreover, Bacher and Inskeep argue that a fundamentally American form of mainline denominationalism can and will endure, despite the rumor of its decline.

“Fair on the Square”,
A Family Celebration
A Sling Wide Event

Come one, come all—kids, families, singles, seniors. This community fair will bring the delights of a day filled with games, activities and, of course, good food!

A comparison is often made between "giving" and "tipping." Wouldn't it be great if people would give as much as they tip? In the following article, Pastor Steve McKinley contrasts the two and discusses why one is appropriate for church and one is not.

Are You A Tipper?

You've had dinner at George's Steak House, Good Company, Applebee's or Vince Lombardi's, and the bill comes. It's probably more than you thought it should be, but then you add on 15-20 % for the tip, a personal reward to your server. (Incidentally, the word "tip" is an acronym for "to improve performance.") Some of us are old enough to remember when the accepted level for tipping was 10 %, but that's another story. If you're like me, you usually just pick out some round number that represents between 15-20 % of your bill.

But, much to the consternation of my family, there have been those times when I have left a much smaller tip as a reflection of my dissatisfaction with the service I have received. Once or twice I have been so appalled at the service and the behavior of the server that I have left only some small token amount as the tip. Leave nothing and the server might think you just forgot. Leave a dollar, and they will know you were very unhappy. And, yes, there have been times when I have been so impressed by the service that I have left much more than 20 %.

Tipping is an accepted social practice. But sometimes I worry that there are church people who view their giving to the church as something like giving a "tip" to God for good service. If I feel like God has been particularly good to me this week, if the weather was good and the work wasn't too much of a hassle and I've been feeling good and the Packers are playing well and the kids stayed out of trouble, I'll give generously. But if God has not served me well this week, if it rained every day and the boss was grouchy and my bum knee has been killing me and we got called in for a meeting with the teacher and maybe, just maybe, Brett Favre really is over the hill, then the church better not count on me to put much in the offering plate.

It's no way to run a railroad or a church or a life. That offering you put in the plate or mail to the office or transmit via "Simply Giving" is not a tip. It is your commitment made out of gratitude to God in thanksgiving for the gifts that surround you and hold you up every day. You don't give because God needs the money. The author and owner of the universe really doesn't depend on your offering. You give because you need to give. Giving touches a need in you to express your gratitude for the blessings of life. It's not a tip given in the hope that God will treat you better. It's your thanksgiving for what God has already done.

New IRS Ruling Impacts Charitable Giving

Beginning last August, and pertaining to the 2007 tax year, those who are over 70 and a half years of age can donate a portion of IRA funds to a charity without having to pay taxes on that portion. This new legislation means financial benefits for both the donor and non-profit organizations. If you would like to have more information on this you may contact the church office or speak to Pastor Ekdale.

Also, the IRS is now requiring receipts as confirmation of charitable gifts. This means that cash gifts have to be recorded by our congregation, and we need to know who the donor is so that we can give you a written confirmation of your gift. Dropping cash in the offering plate and not putting it in an envelope with your name on it will no longer be considered a valid contribution in the event you are audited. The best strategy is to be sure you have your own "book" of envelopes for 2007 so that we can give you quarterly and annual written confirmation of your donations. Contact the church office if you need offering envelopes.

Journey to Fort Ross
Thursday, April 26

Join us for a trip to Fort Ross State Historic Park. Fort Ross is one of the oldest historical park units in the California State Park System. Fort Ross is a wonderful place to visit for its outstanding scenic beauty, recreational opportunities, and to learn about local, California, or world trade history. The settlement of Ross, the name derived from the word for Russia (Rossiia) was established by the Russian - American Company, a commercial hunting and trading company chartered by the tsarist government, with shares held by the members of the Tsar’s family, court nobility and high officials. This park has been established to benefit the people by preserving, restoring, and interpreting the cultural and natural history of this place, and to make the resources accessible to all people. Today the fort has been partly restored to its former appearance.

We are leaving at 9:00 am and will return no later than 5:00 pm.
