

Cow Loves Cookies

by Karma Wilson, illustrated by Marcellus Hall

Cut out the pictures together. Play different games. Have children match the animals to what they eat. Use the pictures to help your children retell the story, too! Young children can say the sounds of the animals. Have children say the repeated phrase "but the cow loves cookies." Older children can retell the story using the pictures to remember the order.

The horse just loves to nibble hay.
He eats it every single day.

Farmer knows what chickens need.
He always gives them chicken feed.

The farmer fees the geese each morn.
He always gives them sweet cracked corn.

When Farmer feeds the hogs their slop,
They love to eat that gooey glop.

Farmer's dog just loves to eat
When Farmer gives him doggy treats.

Cow and Farmer made a deal
And every day they share a meal.

Farmer packs a picnic lunch
And when the two sit down to munch

He takes cookies from a tin
And Cow gives milk to dunk then in.
