Q.26 Now, you are going to see some statements about things that could be happening in the country. After you read each statement, please rate it on a scale of zero to ten, where TEN means that you strongly agree and ZERO means that you strongly disagree with the statement. You can use any number from zero to ten.

26 The deficit is not the problem, lack of growth and shared prosperity is the problem. Large corporations and the wealthiest Americans have prospered over the last few years, but the economy has suffered because that growth has not been widely shared. The deficit will fix itself if we ask the wealthiest to pay their share and invest in jobs programs, health care, education, research, and technology.	50	80	90	10	8.5
27 Reducing the deficit is important, but creating jobs and growing the economy should be our first priority. We need to jolt the economy now with a jobs plan that cuts payroll taxes, keeps teachers and cops on the job, and invests in rebuilding our infrastructure. We can address deficits and spending once we get people back to work.	46	76	92	8	8.4

	%	%	%	%	Mean
	10	8-10	6-10	0-5
28 The deficit is a serious problem. If we don't address spending and deficits, the conservatives will cause grave damage to our nation and our economy. We should reduce the deficit by cutting military spending, ending subsidies for oil companies, and eliminating wasteful government programs. But we also have a revenue problem-we should reduce the deficit by instituting a new financial transactions tax and by raising taxes on the top income earners.	29	55	74	26	7.0

Q.29 Over the last three years, many progressives have been frustrated with the pace of change. Which ONE of the following comes closest to your own view, even if none is exactly right?

	Total
Re-electing the president and taking back the House of Representatives needs to be the first priority, because if the Republicans capture all branches of government, they will do dramatic damage to the country.	48
We need to build an independent movement to challenge the influence of big money and conservative ideas in both parties. We should work from outside the electoral system but also make a concerted effort to recruit and support progressive candidates who are committed to real change.	42
Both parties are compromised. We should build an independent movement to protest the way our two-party system operates. The movement should focus on public education and mass demonstrations, protesting big money and corporate influence in both parties.	10
