THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET A COPY OF THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

This notice of privacy practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) and for their purposes that are permitted and required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. "Protected health information" is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you as that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff and others outside of our office that involved in your case and treatment of the purpose of providing health care services to you to pay your health care bills to support the operation of the physicians practice and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. For example, your protected health information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

Healthcare Operation: We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physicians practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical school students that see patients at our office. In addition, we may use a sign in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment.

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situation without your authorization. These situations include: as Required by Law, Public Health issues required by law, Communicable Diseases: Health oversight: Abuse or Neglect: Food and Drug administration requirements: Legal Proceedings: Law Enforcement: Coroners, Funeral Directors, and Organ Donations: Research: Criminal Activity: Military Activity and National Security: Workers' Compensation: Inmates: Required uses and disclosures: under the law we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures Will Be Made Only With Your Consent, Authorization or Opportunity to Object unless required by law.
