STEP 1

Draw a thick line along the upper lash (no need to be perfect). Continue past the corner of your eye, angling the line slightly upward. If it's helpful, use the end of your eyebrow as a reference point for when to stop.

STEP 2

Run the brush along the pencil tip so that it picks up extra color. Then, starting at the innermost corner of the eye and working your way out, smudge the liner by moving the brush back and forth. Drag the line up and out as you go.
