Special Taiko Workshop Series to be offered in August

Kaoru Watanabe, former performing member and artistic director of internationally acclaimed taiko ensemble, KODO, based on Sado Island, Japan will be leading a special 5-session workshop series.

Kaoru will teach fundamental drills and techniques- starting with conditioning the body with warm ups and stretches and continuing with some basic drumming exercises that will develop control, speed and strength. No drumming experience is necessary to participate in this special workshop series.

There are sessions for both children and adults. In addition, Kaoru is also available to teach fue (Japanese flute) upon request.

This 5 session series will commence on Monday, August 4th and
