

Accountability Q's

WALK WITH GOD

- How often do you read the Bible to feed your soul, not just to prepare for ministry?
- When do you pray, and are those times consistent and intimate?
- Are you interacting with God throughout your days or confining God to a devotional or quiet time?
- Is your walk with God fresh? How are you growing?

SIN

- Have you looked at or read anything you shouldn't have?
- Have you flirted with anyone other than your spouse?
- Have you gossiped – talking negatively about someone when they're not there?
- Have you drank to the point of a buzz or abused any other substance?
- Is there any area of your life in which you are running or hiding from God?

MONEY

- Are you embracing the American Dream or Kingdom Vision?
- What percentage of your income do you give to God's ministry? To your church?
- How much debt do you have? Do you have a plan, and are you making progress?
- Have you been gambling?

MINISTRY

- Are you laboring with vision and diligence for God's kingdom, or are you merely drawing a paycheck while being lax with the freedom that ministry offers?
- Have you been a good steward of church resources, or have you been taking liberties?
- When is the last time you shared the gospel with someone? Are you moving toward nonbelievers and reaching out to them?

COMMUNITY

- Who really knows you? With whom do you take off the mask?
- Are you living in deep fellowship with other Christians?
- Are you striving to restore and build strained relationships, or are you writing people off?
- Are you becoming a person of gratitude and grace or a person of bitterness and complaining?

FAMILY (if applicable)

- Is your marriage more healthy or more frustrating?
- Are you being fulfilled in God and approaching your marriage to give, serve and bless, or are you looking to your spouse to fulfill you?
- What do you need to do to be a better spouse?
- Are you investing in your children with love and vision?
- What are you doing to raise your children in the Lord, not just in the world?
