Introduction

If the job could talk, it would clearly define the knowledge, hard skills, people skills, behavior and culture needed for superior performance. Your unbiased input regarding the specific requirements of the job in question has been applied to the TTI Talent Insights® Job benchmarking process. The result is an evaluative report that analyzes a total of 18 separate areas. Additional feedback and suggested interview questions that pertain to each area complete this report.

Rewards/Culture Hierarchy (6 Areas)

This section clearly identifies the rewards/culture of the job, which defines its sources of motivation. It clarifies "why" and "in what kind of environment" this job will produce success.

Behavioral Hierarchy (12 Areas)

This section explores the behavioral traits demanded of the job. The higher the ranking, the more important the behavioral trait will be to the job for stress reduction and superior performance.

The results of this section are ranked on a scale, reflecting the unique levels of applicability and importance to the job. These rankings illustrate what is essential for this job to deliver superior performance and maximum value to your organization.

Rewards/Culture Feedback

This section expands on the fact that every job in every organization has its own culture. The culture of any job is clearly defined by how it rewards superior performance.

Behavioral Feedback

Conflicting Job Requirements

The TTI Success Insights Workplace Behaviors assessment is designed to analyze the job by letting the job talk. This section describes the potential conflicts or concerns for people in this position. In some cases an organization may choose to re-evaluate the position or its key accountabilities.

Congratulations! Based on the information analyzed, this position does not have immediate potential for internal behavioral conflicts. Please be aware that any variance from how the position was described in the assessment responses could lead to me-me conflicts or behavioral stress.

Behavioral Hierarchy

This section is designed to give a visual understanding of the behavioral traits demanded of the position. The graphs below are in descending order from the highest rated behavioral traits required by the job to the lowest. This means the higher the score the more important that behavioral trait is to stress reduction and superior job performance.

1. Frequent Interaction with Others - The job will comfortably deal with multiple interruptions on a continual basis, always maintaining a friendly interface with others.

2. Urgency - The job requires decisiveness, quick response, fast action. It will often be involved in critical situations demanding that on-the-spot decisions be made with good judgment. The job will repeatedly face important deadlines that must be met on time.

3. Versatility - The job calls for a high level of optimism and a "can do" orientation. It will require multiple talents and a willingness to adapt them to changing assignments as required.

4. Frequent Change - The job requires a comfort level with "juggling many balls in the air at the same time!" It will be asked to leave several tasks unfinished and easily move on to new tasks with little or no notice.

5. Competitiveness - The job exists within a demanding environment where consistently winning is critical. The job demands tenacity, boldness, assertiveness and a "will to win" in dealing with highly competitive situations.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Behavioral Hierarchy

6. People Oriented - The job demands a positive and constructive view of working with others. There will be a high percentage of time spent in listening to, understanding and successfully working with a wide range of people from diverse backgrounds to achieve "win-win" outcomes.

7. Customer Relations - The job demands a desire to convey your sincere interest in your internal and/or external customers.

8. Following Policy - The job calls for complying with the policy or if no policy, complying with the way it has been done in the past.

9. Follow Up and Follow Through - The job requires a need to be thorough and complete tasks that have been started.

10. Consistency - The job requires the ability to do the job the same way on a repeated basis.

11. Analysis of Data - The job deals with a large number of details. It requires that details, data and facts are analyzed and challenged prior to making decisions and that important decision-making data is maintained accurately for repeated examination as required.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Behavioral Hierarchy

12. Organized Workplace - The job's success depends on systems and procedures, its successful performance is tied to careful organization of activities, tasks and projects that require accuracy. Record keeping and planning are essential components of the job.

Job Rewards/Culture Questions

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the rewards/culture environment of the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. Traditional/Regulatory: Rewards those who value traditions inherent in social structure, rules, regulations and principles.
 - Is there an absolute right and absolute wrong? How do you decide what is right and what is wrong?
 - Tell me about "rules." Give me an example of a rule that you follow relative to managing or leading others. Where did you learn that rule? How flexible is it?
 - Have there been situations in your work experience when you were absolutely convinced that your rules or standards were superior to your employers? If so, why were they better? Were you able to convince your employees that yours were better?
 - Do you sometimes feel that things would be easier and better if there were fewer rules and procedures? Please elaborate.

2. Theoretical: Rewards those who value knowledge for knowledge's sake, continuing education and intellectual growth.
 - Which is more important, action or knowledge?
 - Would you consider yourself to be an expert in something? What is it? How did you go about gaining the knowledge?
 - Tell me what you especially like or enjoy about learning things. What topics or subjects do you enjoy?
 - How comfortable are you in taking the time, energy and effort required to master a subject or topic you currently know very little about? How about one in which you have very little interest?

3. Utilitarian/Economic: Rewards those who value practical accomplishments, results and rewards for their investments of time, resources and energy.
 - How important is earning a lot of money to you? What do you consider to be a "lot of money"?
 - Where would you like to be, financially, in 5 years? 10 years? Why?
 - What role does earning a significant income play in your job choices? In staying in a job?
 - Would you consider yourself to be a bottom line, practical thinker or are you more theoretical or philosophical? Why do you say that?
