2011 fun for kids @ Shira

Hi Guys!

Welcome to 2011 @ Shira. We are going to have a great time together doing really fun programs every shabbat as well as some extra special activities during the chaggim. One of the cool things that we are starting this year is this cool kids newsletter where you can find games and quizzes on the weekly parsha and other fun stuff to enjoy. You can even write into the newsletter if you have a funny joke you want to share or even a story or a picture. Also make sure that you email in with your answers to the quizzes and challenges.

Just email yardena.prawer@gmail.com

Rosh Chodesh Adar I and the Kohen Gadol's Fashion Sense.

Did you know that this year is a leap year in the Jewish calendar which means that there are two months of ADAR, the month of PURIM. Dressing up for Purim is one of my favourite things to do and this week's parsha there is a guy who likes to dress up almost as much as I do and his name is Aharon. He was the High priest and he had to wear a whole uniform when he went to work in the mishkan (Temple.) There is a whole description of what he had to wear. One of the cool things was a plate that he wore on his front that had a stone to represent every different tribe. Imagine how heavy it would have been to wear that thing all the time. He also had to wear a dress which wasn't so funny at the time coz boys used to wear dresses too. What do you think of his outfit? fashionable?
