PREFACE

This directory was prepared as an Eagle Scout Project, under the leadership of Nathan Chaney, Boy Scouts of America Troop 24, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Its purpose is to serve the community children and youth by giving them a guide by which they are able to choose constructive activities that are available to them in the area. The guide also serves the parents of these children.

I would like to thank the following people whose assistance in this project is greatly appreciated:

Boy Scout Troop 24
Don and Terri Chaney
Veda Morgan
Joe Phelps
Blain Smith
David Stoddard
Bruce Watterson

Arts and Humanities

ARKADELPHIA TALENT EDUCATION

Ages: All ages preschool to adult
Time: As scheduled
Fees: $40 private lessons, $15 group lessons
Contact: Meredith Nisbet
116 Evonshire Drive
Arkadelphia, AR 71923
(501) 246-2803

Meredith Nisbet offers Suzuki method music lessons, group and private, in violin, viola, cello, and piano for all ages, preschool to adult. Music composition lessons and college prep music theory classes are also available. The fee for composing or arranging music for a church choir or other organization is by commission. Students are required to cooperate and practice. Parent involvement is crucial. For children preschool age through age 10 or 12, a parent attends lessons, takes notes, and supervises home practice.

CLARK COUNTY ARTS AND HUMANITIES COUNCIL

Ages: All
Time: Year round
Fees: None
Contact: Arts and Humanities Council
P.O. Box 499
Arkadelphia, AR 71923
(501) 246-4238

The arts and humanities council gives people of all ages in the area a chance to be involved with a number of activities, such as: art exhibits, programs, recitals, and theatrical productions. All that is required is an interest in the arts and humanities as a participant or observer.

Debi Fendley coordinates the art and photography exhibits and Gene Drummond is the theater and music organizer. The Council office is located in the J.E.C. office on the Henderson State University campus.

For more information, contact the council at the above address or call Gene Drummond at (501) 246-4238.
