

Hello!

Thanks for considering our rental application. We love the apartment and the building and hope to make it our new home.

Attached you will find a completed information sheet and a personal reference. I would also like to tell you a bit about us.

My husband TC is the main breadwinner of the household. He has worked for well over a decade in accounting and finance, and has thankfully found himself in a spot that will likely be unaffected by current economic woes. I work full time, at home, as a designer. For the last two years I have been busy writing a book, which is now being published and will be in stores nationwide in March.

Our dog, Lobo, is by far the most accomplished in our household in terms of personal achievement. He was born homeless on the mean streets of Quito, Ecuador, and through a successful mastery of manipulating the hearts of a long line of sympathetic women, has found himself living in Manhattan and sleeping on his own high-end hand dyed designer sheepskin. Likely part Dachsund (but with much longer legs), he fits easily on my pillow (where he is not allowed) and weighs about 20 pounds. Because I work from home, he and I are together for the bulk of the day. In an effort to keep housework light, I have him groomed regularly and cover his feet when we go on walks in the rain. He is extremely well behaved even when not being supervised, house-trained, friendly, and exceedingly passive. He is available for interviews, as are we, should you want to meet in person.

Please don't hesitate to call with any questions or concerns, and thanks so much for considering us for your apartment.

Best Regards,

Heather Ross
