

Weekend Sewing Workshops With Heather Ross & Friends

Information Sheet

Fall 2011, New York City

Session 1 / October 7-9 (Columbus Day is October 10th)
With Heather Ross, Anna Maria Horner, and Denyse Schmidt*

Session 2 / November 11-13 (Veterans Day is November 11th)
With Heather Ross, Jay McCarroll, Liesl Gibson, and Gretchen Hirsch*

$1200	Shared Room, Basic (bunk or twin beds, private bath)
$1400	Shared Room, Upgraded (two double beds, private bath)
$1600	Single Room Basic (one queen sized bed, private bath)

What Does the Fee Include?

Workshop Fees include accommodations (tentatively The Ace Hotel) Friday and Saturday nights, most meals, a sewing machine and workspace in our sewing studio, all instruction and participation in sewing labs and demonstrations, plus guest-teacher-led shopping (with a little culture thrown in) trips to New York City's best sewing, craft, and design shops. We can also promise loads of inspiration, laughs, and some excellent pastries.

Who Comes to These Workshops?

Most of our guests come on their own, and leave with lots of new friends. Some people like to come with friends and family members. All sewing levels welcome. Work-shoppers bring personal projects and get expert advice, fitting assistance, and whatever one on one attention they might require from our guest teachers. Group size is limited to 15 people.

Can I bring My Husband and/or Baby?

Yes, but for insurance reasons we can't allow babies or kids in our actual workspaces and because many of our guests will be expecting a real "getaway" from their own families, we can't include babies or kids in our other events either. Also, be aware that while some weekends find us in the same place all weekend long, be aware that this one has us dashing all over that place! You are, of course, welcome to skip whatever group meals and plans to be with your families, it is, after all your weekend.... and New York City is just about the best place to find things to do with kids!

Why is This Workshop More Expensive Than Your Other Workshops?

New York City is packed full of inspiration, resources and a truly unique energy. Its also very expensive compared to other destinations. We have worked hard to keep the weekend as affordable as possible while still making sure that our guests see the best it has to offer, and that includes great food and a fun, comfortable hotel. We think it will be a weekend to remember!

How Do I Sign Up?

You can register online, on Heather's Website. Once you've completed the online registration you'll receive a confirmation and an invoice. A deposit of 65% of your workshop fee is due upon registration. Your balance will be due on June 1st. Your payment can be made via personal check. If you need to cancel, you must do so before June 1st, 2011 and we must be able to fill your empty spot in order for you to receive a full refund.

More Questions? Email us at workshopheatherross@hotmail.com