

Outstanding citizens no

The Gibsons Chamber of Commerce has received a good response from the public regarding the 1989 Outstanding Citizenship awards.

Twenty seven nominations have been received. They are: CBC

Beachcombers, Cindy Buis, D'Arcy Burk, Cedar's Pub, Vivian Chamberlain, George Cooper, Merv Dunford, Graham Edney, Jo Fraser, Malcom Fraser, Garden Club, Gibsons Fire Dept., Howe Sound

Coast arts scene

This is Art rental week at the Arts centre, Tuesday, June 5 from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. Local artists' work can be rented for three or six months for your home or office. get there early for the best picks!

At the Arts Centre, Wild Flowers, Wild Wolves, paintings by Gloria Masse, can be seen until Sunday, June 10. This artist is comfortable with large scale and confident in her abilities.

With deft and energetic brushwork, bold color, imaginative composition and a stimulating balance between painterliness and representation, this work has considerable appeal. She invests her subjects with a heroic stature, as if they were ambassadors for all the wilderness.

See the show this week, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday and 1-4 p.m. Sunday, before it closes.

ing at a beginner level, some of these young violinists have reached considerable competence.

One or two belong to the Soundwaves Orchestra, which performed the Pirates of Penzance. This is a chance to find out what Suzuki Violin is all about and share some finger food and ice cream.

Don't miss the dinner theatre event June 10 at the Omega restaurant in Gibsons. A Greek buffet and three comedy pieces in support of the Women's Institute Hall Theatre.