

CENTER FOR THOMISTIC STUDIES (Houston, TX)
UNIVERSITY OF ST. THOMAS (St. Paul, MN)

Call for papers on the thought of

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

44th INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF MEDIEVAL STUDIES
Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan
May 7-10, 2009

There will be a total of 6 sessions devoted to Medieval philosophical and theological thought, especially Aquinas, sponsored by:

The Center for Thomistic Studies, c/o R.E. Houser, Center for Thomistic Studies, University of St. Thomas (TX), 3800 Montrose, Houston, TX 77006-4696. FAX: (713) 942-3464. email: houser@stthom.edu. The topic for 2009 will be the theological virtue of HOPE. Papers about Aquinas, his sources, or contemporary applications of his thought on the topic of HOPE will be considered for publication in a volume to be published for the Center for Thomistic Studies by The Catholic University of America Press.

The Thomas Aquinas Society, c/o John F. Boyle, Department of Theology, JRC 153, University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN, 55105, FAX (651) 962-5310, email: jfboyle@stthomas.edu. Proposals on any topic dealing with Aquinas are welcome.

Papers are 20 minutes in length.

Deadline for 300 word abstract for presentation at Kalamazoo: 14 Sep 2008.

Deadline for completed paper on courage for consideration for publication: 1 Sep 2009.

The Kalamazoo conference is the largest congress for Medieval Studies in the world. Cost of room and board is quite moderate, and the atmosphere congenial to those interested in Aquinas.
