

SPONSORS & ORGANIZERS

The Catholic & Dominican Institute of Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, NY, promotes the College's Dominican heritage; advances the Dominican charism of study and service; provides a forum for discussion of contemporary ethical issues; and enhances Catholic and Jewish dialogue. Guided by the college's vision and mission statement, the Institute welcomes persons of varied faiths and acknowledges different religious traditions as essential to the college's intellectual and spiritual life. The Institute is directed by Charles Zola, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Philosophy.

The Thomistic Institute of the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, DC, promotes research into the thought of St. Thomas Aquinas and the subsequent Thomistic tradition. The research of the Institute is both historic and systematic, deeply rooted in the classical Catholic tradition while engaging contemporary discourse and thought. The Institute also recognizes the importance of the philosophical heritage of the Common Doctor of the Church as a wellspring that can enrich the study of theology. An educational project of the Order of Preachers, the Thomistic Institute is situated within the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.
