

Monday, June 11, 2012

Dear Family and Friends,

Although it is difficult for us to see how some bad things can lead to good things, God is able not only to see the good things, but also to make them happen.

In March, we shared with you the sad news that Julissa Calderon departed from this world prematurely, having decided to end her life. Since that awful day, Maclovio and Vicky Calderon have mourned the loss of their beloved daughter. However, since that day, they also reached out to a young man, Jonathan Olivero, who was Julissa's good friend.

The Calderons made it their aim to help Jonathan not make the same choice their daughter had made. As a result, they began to encourage Jonathan and opened the doors of their home to him. He soon began attending church services with the Calderons. Then, Maclovio began to study with him. A few weeks back, Jonathan made the decision to turn his life over to Jesus. As you can see from the pictures, Maclovio took his confession and then immersed him for the remission of his sins.

We rejoice with Jonathan's decision and ask you to rejoice with us. Please pray for Jonathan, so that he may grow in his faith. Pray, too, for the Calderons as they continue to mourn the loss of their daughter, but as they now find joy in a new "son" God has granted them.

We thank you in advance for your prayers.

God bless you!

En Cristo,

Byron
Hawatthia

Teaching the CENTRAL MESSAGE in CENTRAL AMERICA!