Each MakrBox is full of...

Discovery

As the dawn light begins to subtly bare the morning fog across the Pacific Northwest the story unfolds.

Bundled in warm clothing, talented Makers and Artisans set out to local markets to setup shop. The sky is still mostly dark as they sip steaming coffee and begin arranging their handcrafted artisan goods. By the time the sun burns off the morning haze a bustling crowd of shoppers has arrived in search of fresh fruits, organic vegetables and unique goods you can't find anywhere else.

"It's here, in this moment that we find some of the most incredible products built by the hands of amazing people."

We want you to discover them too and you love them as much as we do.

Stories

Beyond the rocky coast lines, the lush foliage and the beautiful mountains, the Pacific Northwest boasts some of the most fascinating people.

"Individuals who aren't afraid to imagine, to innovate and to forge sustainable businesses founded on quality handcrafted products."

They make artisan goods in their basements, in their garages, in their shops and on their farms. They are not taking lessons from mass produced factory stuff but instead they are using their hands to create products that capture our minds and lead us to realizations about superior alternatives. Behind every maker good there is a vision, a story and inspiration for you to know and share.

Community

So much bigger than the box you receive is the community you have chosen to support. Every item in your box is directly purchased from the person who hand crafts it.

"Your support allows makers across the Pacific Northwest to continue to craft, to create and to imagine."

MakrBox is a way for you to support a local economy, inspire craft, and encourage uniqueness.
