

Anne Mette Iversen

bassist, composer, bandleader

"Her ability to combine modern themes and classic structures into something that reaches on a deeply personally level with each record is rare among composers in recent years." - Stephan Moore, Jazz Wrap

Quartet

-feat: John Ellis, Danny Grissett, Otis Brown III

Double Life

-feat: AMI Quartet, Peter Dahlgren (tb) & 4Corners string quartet

"Iversen's intelligent writing style organically balances intricate, through-composed ensemble playing and wide-open improvisation in a chamber aesthetic . . . this sharp outfit is definitely one to check out."
- Bill Milkowski, JazzTimes

Bassist and composer Anne Mette Iversen has been leading her New York City based groups since 2001. She has released 5 albums in her own name, where-of two are double albums, and a new album with Double Life is scheduled for release on Brooklyn Jazz Underground Records in March 2014.

In support of the release Double Life is available for concerts in July & August 2014. A special Quintet edition of Anne Mette Iversen Quartet is also currently being booked.

Anne Mette Iversen Quartet features the reknowned tenor saxophonist John Ellis, exceptional pianist Danny Grissett, and master drummer Otis Brown III. Double Life features the Anne Mette Iversen Quartet, Swedish trombone-wizard Peter Dahlgren and the outstanding Danish string quartet 4 Corners.

Ms. Iversen tours continuously with her groups world wide. She is widely respected and acclaimed for her music and reviewed world wide in major jazz publications. She appears at jazz festivals, major clubs in Europe and the US, and has had radio features on US National Public Radio, Danish National Public Radio, and Deutschland Radio Kultur (Germany).

home: <http://www.annemetteiversen.com> video: <http://www.youtube.com/user/annemetteiversen/videos> listen: <http://www.soundcloud.com/anne-mette-iversen/sets/anne-mette-iversen-quartet> contact: booking@bjurecords.com / +49 (0) 1578 7500 990