

Commemorative Medallion of the Blessed Spouses Louis and Zélie Martin

The front side:

An engraving of the Martin spouses on their wedding day, surrounded by a wreath of roses which symbolizes holiness, love, and fidelity.

The back side: The biblical couple Sarah and Tobias evokes the eminent role of the vocation of marriage in the history of humanity and of salvation. The inscription "Lisieux, October 19, 2008" recalls the place and the day where the Holy Father, Benedict XVI, inscribed the two spouses jointly in the Book of the Blessed.

The wreath of roses and the figures of Sarah and Tobias are taken from the medallion that Louis Martin selected as a souvenir of the night of his wedding to Zélie Guérin, July 13, 1858, at Our Lady's Church in Alençon. A bronze medallion, silver-toned, with an antique patina. 60 millimeters in diameter; 14 millimeters thick. (About the size of a coaster. For display, not to be worn). Price: 30 euros plus shipping (to the U.S., 15 euros). Revenues will be used to promote the canonization of Blessed Louis and Zélie Martin. To order, please e-mail Father Antonio Sangalli, O.C.D. at sangalli.antonio@carmelovocazioni.it with your shipping address and the number of medallions you want. Or write to him at: Padre Antonio Sangalli/via Cappella del Monte 17/fraz. Montechiaro, Italy - 80066 Vico Equense. Please send the money by moneygram, which you can do online or by visiting a local office; please see <http://www.moneygram.com/MGIUS/index.htm> or call 1-800-MONEYGRAM.