

out for us. I just don't think we could have done it so well.

You were a true professional with such talent, but what makes you even more special is your "personal" side in caring about your client and making that day for them one they will never forget.

You were a joy to work with.
Thank you again for everything.
Patti Holt