

TIME

EXCURSION

Vineyard Haven

Better known for beaches, Long Island is fostering its image as the East Coast wine country

By HEATHER WON TESORIERO

YOUTH AND NAIVETE—and, in this case, quite a few grapes—can be the perfect ingredients for success. In 1973, Louisa and Alex Hargrave, a young couple fresh out of Harvard, set out to build a vineyard in Cutchogue, N.Y. It wasn't considered an ideal spot. For centuries, would-be vintners had been discouraged by the

* BOTTLED UP
Bedell Cellars of Cutchogue, N.Y., presses out Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon