

Sweet Treats: The Best Ice Pops From Across the Country

by Francesca Gilberti

Pies and cupcakes beware: As Jeffrey Steingarten investigates in our August issue, it's the ice pop that's having a deliciously innovative moment. Below are our eight picks for frozen treats across the country that are as pretty as they are refreshing. Whether it's a Mexican fruit paleta, a glorified Fudgsicle, or a dipped gelato version, what could be a better relief from the sultry days of summer?

POPBAR

New York

In the heart of the West Village, superchic Popbar serves 26 creamy flavors of hand-crafted gelato atop sticks; so well-executed that even a bonafide Italian would approve.

5 Carmine Street
212.255.4874
pop-bar.com

Photo: Courtesy of Popbar

2 of 8

