BOSTON — New York City-based Ashkenazy Acquisition Corp. (ACC) has filed a master plan with the City of Boston for Faneuil Hall Marketplace. Designed by Elkus Manfredi Architects, Faneuil Hall Marketplace will include an enhanced public realm, glass retail pavilions, a new colonnade, rotunda space and a new boutique hotel, as well a redesigned exterior streetscape. Tenants that have already signed on for Faneuil Hall Marketplace include Uniqlo's Boston flagship location, Ghirardelli Café and the children's book-themed Make Way for Ducklings store. The project team includes Biederman Redevelopment Ventures and Watertown, Mass.-based Sasaki Associates.
