

You can have goals
and you can have greatness.

This is the story of having both.

Who chooses the military life, and why do they stay? Living on Higher Ground is a long-awaited inside look at the call of duty and lifelong rewards of the military experience, from a man who has lived it all. From his boyhood beginnings in rural North Carolina to his commission in the United States Air Force and his rise to the Pentagon, author Paul Lawrence Vann shows us a clear path to success we can each follow. This inspiring story of close family ties, clear thinking, challenges, losses, friendship, and faith, shows you how to explore the terrain of your own greatest potential—in the military or any life path.

~ This book is a national treasure. ~

Learn how you can:

- ★ See beyond your current circumstances
- ★ Recognize the defining moments in your life
- ★ Make every decision count
- ★ Build a legacy of friendship wherever you go
- ★ Believe in something greater than yourself—and serve it

Includes 26 quick-step action plans for living with passion and purpose in your life.

"Lieutenant Colonel Paul Vann exhibits the superior qualities of a military officer. His service as a fellow in the Capitol Hill Program in my office was a win-win-win situation for the Air National Guard, the U.S. House, and the nation." —Patrick J. Kennedy, Representative, 1st District of Rhode Island

"Paul Lawrence Vann is a military expert willing to mentor and share his secrets for 'Living on Higher Ground.' This book will motivate and inspire you to achieve your own success!"

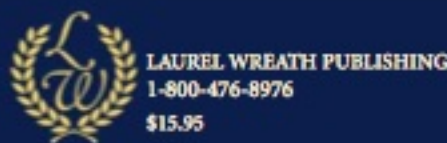

—Julia Cleckley, Brigadier General, USA (Ret)

First African-American Female, Line General in the Army National Guard

PAUL LAWRENCE VANN, Lieutenant Colonel, USAF (Ret) enjoyed a military career that spanned twenty years of duty, with more than twelve consecutive years in the Pentagon. Through his speaking, training, and consulting, he now motivates and inspires military, corporate, association, and youth audiences around the world to achieve higher levels of excellence in their personal and professional lives.

For more information, please visit: www.paullawrencevann.com

LAUREL WREATH PUBLISHING
1-800-476-8976
$15.95

Cover Design: Kathi Dunn, www.dunn-design.com

ISBN 0-9764679-0-9

9 780976 467908

5 1 5 9 5

★★★★

LIVING on HIGHER GROUND

★★★★★

LIVING on

How to live with passion, motivation, and joy

HIGHER

~ A salute to the military life ~

GROUND

PAUL LAWRENCE VANN

A story for friends, family, and the military